GENERAL INFORMATION

6.01 LEGAL REQUIREMENTS

Applicable provisions of all federal, state, county, and local laws, will govern development, submittal and evaluation of all Responses received hereto and will govern any and all claims and disputes that may arise between persons submitting a Response and the Board. Lack of knowledge by any Respondent will not constitute a cognizable defense against the legal effect thereof.

6.02 BOARD RIGHTS

The Board, in its sole discretion, may take any of the following actions and may determine the scope and manner of such actions, the Respondent(s) affected, and whether to provide concurrent public notice of such decision:

1. Modify this solicitation, after posting notice thereof.
2. Review and rely on relevant information contained in a Response.
3. Change the members of the Evaluation Team and/or Negotiation Team.
4. Request supplemental Responses from a Respondent.
5. Contact previous clients of a Respondent, as identified by the Respondent, to inquire about the Respondent's ability to deliver on the services offered.
6. Expand the Shortlist, after posting notice thereof, to include additional responsive Respondents.
7. Require any or all Respondent(s) to address services, prices, or conditions offered by any other Respondent.
8. Schedule additional negotiating sessions with any or all Respondent(s).
9. Decline to conduct further negotiations with any Respondent.
10. Reopen negotiations with any Respondent.
11. Require any or all Respondent(s) to provide a best and final offer.
12. Take any administrative steps deemed necessary to determine final award, including additional fact-finding, evaluation, or negotiation where necessary and consistent with the terms of this procurement.
13. Arrive at an agreement with any Respondent, finalize principal contract terms and terminate negotiations with any or all other Respondents, regardless of the status of, or scheduled negotiations with, such other Respondents.
14. Accept or reject any and all Responses and to award the contract in the best interests of the State of Florida.

6.03 PUBLIC ACCESS TO RECORDS

Responses to this solicitation shall result in the Respondent waiving any and all rights relating to confidentiality, or claims thereof, upon delivery to the Board. All electronic and written communications pertaining to this procurement, whether sent from or received by the Board, and all Responses including, without limitation, administrative information, proposed services/commodities, and price will be subject to disclosure after contract award as required under Chapter 119, Florida Statutes.

Negotiations between the Board and Respondent are exempted from being held as public meetings by Section 286.0113(2)(a), Florida Statutes. In addition, strategy meetings held by Negotiation Team are also exempted by Section 286.0113(2)(a), Florida Statutes.

6.04 PROPERTY OF BOARD

All Responses become the property of the Board upon receipt and will not be returned to the Respondent. The Board has the right to use any and all ideas or adaptations of ideas contained in any Response received in for this solicitation. Selection or rejection of the Response will not affect this right. All Responses become public documents upon submission. All materials and data produced for the Board under the contract resulting from this solicitation will be owned by the Board unless otherwise agreed to in writing by the Board.

6.05 COST OF DEVELOPING AND SUBMITTING RESPONSES

Neither the Board nor the State of Florida is liable for any of the costs incurred by the Respondent in preparing and/or submitting a Response. Negotiations between the Board and Respondent are exempted from being held as public meetings by Section 286.0113(2)(a), Florida Statutes. In addition, strategy meetings held by Negotiation Team are also exempted by Section 286.0113(2)(a), Florida Statutes.

6.06 USE OF ARTIFICAIL INTELLIGENCE

The Board may utilize enterprise artificial intelligence (AI) tools to assist evaluators and authorized personnel in reviewing, organizing, summarizing, and analyzing information submitted in response to this solicitation. Any such use will be limited to Board-approved enterprise AI environments with appropriate information security and data protection controls, including safeguards to ensure that submitted information is not used to train, improve, or otherwise contribute to publicly available or shared AI models. AI tools will serve solely as supplemental resources. All evaluation judgments, scoring, negotiations, and procurement decisions will remain the responsibility of the Board's designated evaluators and authorized personnel and will be conducted in accordance with the processes established in this solicitation. Nothing in this section alters the treatment of Responses and procurement communications as public records under Section 6.03 or under Chapter 119, Florida Statutes.
